IS SPRING BEAUTIFUL?

A Little Philosophy Upon the Subject.

How Mud. Dust. Cold Winds and Piles

"Spring, beautiful Spring:" How beautiful it is: In the country there is mud, rain, stagnant pools where meiting snows have accumulated, cold winds, a chilly atmosphere, in fact everything that is disagreeable and injurious to life. In the city there are accomplations of the Winter in the street haling poisons every minute, and these poisons are blown by the raw winds into the home of the millionaire, into the hovel of the squatter, into the every one, whether he ventures upon the street
